History, Arts & Culture

Taichung is a city where tradition and modernity coexist, offering a rich variety of cultural landmarks —from century-old temples and historic sites to art spaces and creative hubs. Together, they form a cultural landscape unique to Taichung.

1 Twin Pavillans, Taichung Park

This century-old park is one of the kind. Furthermore, the Twin Pavillions is the landmark of the city. Rowing on Riyue Lake is the classic holiday experience for residents.

2 National Taichung Theater

Designed by Toyo Ito, this establishment is widely famous for its curved walls. It is one of the Top 9 architecture miracles in the world.

3 Taichung Green Museumbrary

The building' s exterior wall resembles a thin veil, showcasing a sense of natural transparency. Combining an art museum and a library, it has become a new cultural landmark in Taichung.

4 Jenn Lann Temple

The very starting point of Mazu Pilgrimage, one of the three major religious events in the world. The worship is active all year round, and even foreign tourists come to visit.

5 PARK2

A park with desert landscaping, which is also a shopping mall that gathers many trendy brands. It is located next to Calligraphy Greenway, a great place for picnics or simply taking a walk.

6 National Taiwan Museum of Comics

A former prison complex from Japanese colonial period has now been revamped into a hub that promotes local comics. It is fast becoming a must-visit!

7 Wufeng Lin Family Mansion (Gong-Bao-Di)

It is hailed as the first official residence and the representative of Hokkien architecture in Taiwan. Come admire the grandeur of the "Grand Flower Hall".

8 Da'an Port Mazu Cultural Park

Home to the tallest Mazu statue on Taiwan's main island! Enjoy sweeping sea views across the park, and head to nearby Daan Seaside Paradise for a fun seaside camping experience!

Top 22 Must-Visit Attractions in Taichung

Food & Shopping

Taichung is a paradise for foodies and shoppers alike, with everything from street snacks to gourmet meals. Creative parks and night markets offer endless surprises for shopaholics!

9 Yizhong Shopping District

A gathering of numerous local eateries. The fried chicken fillet and Feng Ren Ice are the must-try items!

11 Feng Chia Night Market

The largest night market and the origin of various street foods in Taiwan. Taiwanese sausage with sticky rice and fried noodle bun are worth trying!

10 Second Market

Local market with a 100-year-old history! It's the best place to savor braised pork rice and Egg noodles, just like the locals in Taichung have been doing for decades.

12 Shen Ji New Village

A converted space for creativity. The residence for public servants back in the days now serves creamed puffs and traditional cake snacks.

Nature & LOHAS

With a landscape stretching from mountains to sea, Taichung offers a wide range of travel options. Whether you're hiking to take in breathtaking forest views or strolling along the beach with waves at your feet, you're sure to find a hidden paradise where your spirit can truly relax.

13 Hou Feng Bike Path & Dongfeng Bicycle Green Way

Two interconnected bicycle paths offer various attractions along the way, including Houli Horse Ranch, the Steel Truss Bridge, and the "Zero-Mark " Platform.

15 Huanshan Hunters' Hiking Trail

The route features semi-subterranean dwellings, Atayal-themed archery ranges, and other tribal elements—blending leisure and challenge along the hiking trail.

17 Dakeng Hiking Trails

14 trails ranging from family-friendly to challenging, giving you different views of natural vegetation form different sea levels.

14 Tanya Shen Green Bikeway

Foliage surrounds the bike lane, which features wavy sections and S shape tracks, making it a hotspot for check-ins.

16 Guguan Hot Spring

Also known as the "Beauty Bath" because of its special skin-smoothing minerals. Make sure to visit Shaolai Trail and Longgu Fall when in the area.

18 Gaomei Wetland

As the sun sets over the ocean, the sky is washed in hues of orange and yellow; the wooden boardwalk stretching into the horizon creating a beautiful dreamlike scene.

19 Lihpao Resort

Skyscrapers, a land and water theme parks, hotels, racing park and an outlet mall, Lihpao has just about everything you want.

20 Wuling Farm

The scenery in Taichung changes beautifully with the seasons: enjoy cherry blossoms and fruit picking in spring and summer, then admire maple leaves and snowy landscapes in autumn and winter. It's an ideal destination for planning memorable trips all year-round.

21 Taichung Aquarium

Taichung' s latest hotspot features an open penguin exhibit, a giant jellyfish tank, interactive projection displays, and Taiwan' s only indoor wetland — fun and photo-worthy!

22 Xueshankeng Hiking Trail

The famous landmark known as the "Giant's Arm" adds a touch of magic to this hidden trail, attracting many hiking enthusiasts who come from far and wide to experience it.
